

Pacific News Center

UOG's Small Business Development Center to Release Business Guide

Guam - The UOG Guam Small Business Development Center will release copies of the 2009 Guam Business Resource Guide Friday October 23.

The Guide contains useful, relevant information that entrepreneurs can use to start their own business.

“Our goal is to make the process of doing business in Guam easier,” said Casey Jeszenka, Network Director. “All the basic information that businesses operating in Guam need to know is contained in this Guide.”

“In 2007, the Guide was the only publication of its kind for Guam,” said Rodney Webb, Business Counselor, Training Coordinator, and lead editor for this publication. “Now, in the 2009 edition, the Guide has been comprehensively updated, with web links provided to source documents wherever possible.”

The Guam Business Resource Guide contains information on the following key areas:

- Business Planning
- Setting up a Business
- Business Taxation
- Sources of Business Finance
- Business Incentives
- Business Assistance
- Federal Contracting in Guam
- Operating in Guam

Copies of the Guide will be available free of charge on Friday, Oct. 23 at the release event. Thereafter, copies will be available from the UOG Guam Small Business Development Center. Copies will also be made available to the Guam Chamber of Commerce, GEDA, GVB, and others.

For more information about the Guide, contact Casey Jeszenka at 735-2593 or casey@pacificsbd.com.